We do not have the Lorillard patent, but will have it for you in two days — if there is such a patent.

I have a record of only one patent issued to Lorillard that could deal with carbowax. It has been abstracted in this way:

"A method of forming a tobacco smoke flavor material by distributing finely-divided particles deposited as a coating on the tacky surface of elongated filaments."

Thelma

1000299446

Source: https://www.industrydocuments.ucsf.edu/docs/rzcj0000